A workshop sponsored by
The Delaware National Estuarine Research Reserve
Coastal Training Program

The Delaware National Estuarine Research Reserve, part of the Delaware Coastal Programs, will host a workshop to assist applicants in developing successful project proposals for environmental grants. All potential applicants, particularly those with little or no grant writing experience, are encouraged to attend the workshop. This central location is offered in an effort to reach potential applicants throughout the State of Delaware.

Tuesday, October 21st      Delaware National Estuarine Research Reserve
St. Jones Reserve Center
818 Kitts Hummock Road
Dover, Delaware

The workshop will begin at 9:00 a.m. and end by 1:00 p.m. with lunch provided. The workshop will consist of presentations regarding general grant writing tips and opportunities for grant funding. Delaware Coastal Programs staff members will be available after the presentations to answer questions and help workshop participants refine projects in order to develop a grant proposal. After lunch, participants are invited to tour the St Jones Reserve property. The workshop is free of charge; however, attendees must pre-register by Tuesday, October 14th.
